

Officers for Lioness Club Installed in Joint Ceremony

A festive evening for members of the Torrance Lions and Lioness clubs began last Saturday with a gay cocktail party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Robinson, 111 Via Sego, Hollywood-Riviera, and ended at an installation dinner and dance at the Hacienda in San Pedro.

The entire party of about 140 persons met first at the Robinson home, then moved on to the Hacienda. Judge William McKesson, acting as installing officer for the joint installation ceremonies, installed the following Lioness officers: Mmes. Abe Robinson, president; Fred Boren, first vice-president; Pete Radisch, second vice-president; Ruel Moulton, secretary; Mott Farrell, treasurer; and Lowell Spring, hair puller.

Outgoing president, Mrs. H. J. Osborne, was presented with a gavel, and with a sterling silver compote dish, bearing her name and an inscription. Dinner and dancing followed the installation.

It was an evening of double honor for the Robinsons, since Mr. Robinson was installed president of the Lions club.

Wedding Ceremony in Borup, Minnesota Unites Marian Dahl and William Kerr

A romance that began in Torrance culminated in a wedding ceremony at the Jevnaker Lutheran church in Borup, Minnesota on June 27, when Miss Marian Dahl became the bride of William R. Kerr, a Torrance fireman.

Miss Dahl, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dahl reside in Borup, was a resident of Redondo Beach, where she was teaching in elementary school. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kerr, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride looked lovely in a gown of white net over taffeta, accented by appliqued lace. Her bridal veil hung softly from a matching beaded hat. She carried a bouquet of small red roses on a testament given her by her grandmother, Mrs. Hans Dahl, and a handkerchief worn by the bridegroom's mother at her wedding 40 years ago.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Evelyn Dahl, in a ballerina length gown of yellow net, carrying a bouquet of aqua carnations. Miss Marilyn Short, as bridesmaid, was dressed in a ballerina length aqua net gown, carrying yellow carnations.

The bride's mother wore blue lace over pink taffeta, and the bridegroom's mother wore blue lace over blue taffeta. Each carried a corsage of pink roses.

Raymond Dahl served the bridegroom as best man, with Kenneth Dahl, Glen Espe and Vernon Rage as ushers. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Pastor Archie Lo-vaas.

Organist, Miss Judy Halvorson, played the Bridal Chorus, by Wagner, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March, and accompanied soloist, Miss Julia Edwards, who sang "Song of Ruth" by Gounod, and the "Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap.

In charge of the guest book was Mrs. Donald Bjorhus. A reception was held at the church following the wedding ceremony, at which 120 guests were present. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Byron Eaves and family from Bethany, Missouri; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hardisty and Miss Judy Halvorson of Thief River Falls, Minnesota; and other relatives and friends from Malung, Moorhead, Minneapolis and Pelican Rapids, Minnesota.

Pouring at the reception were Mrs. Frank Hardisty, Mrs. John Magnuson, Mrs. John Olson, and Mrs. Omer Espe.

The newlyweds' honeymoon included a short stay at Detroit Lakes, Minnesota, after which they motored back to California. They are at present residing at 1925 S. Crenshaw blvd., Torrance. Mr. Kerr is employed as a fireman for the city.

Bride-Elect Marlene Schildmeyer Honored at Pre-Wedding Parties

Miss Marlene Schildmeyer, 1938 W. 262nd st., Lomita, has been the center of a gay whirl of activities preceding her marriage to John Deere on Sunday, July 22.

Last week, Miss Schildmeyer was honored at a surprise shower given by Mmes. Ruth Wilkins and Lois Schildmeyer, at the Wilkins home, 3336 Palos Verdes Drive N., Palos Verdes estates.

Decorations were carried out in lavender and white, predominant among which was a large parasol of lavender and white crepe paper, with streamers in the same colors set off by white wedding bells. A huge cake was decorated with a small parasol, wedding bells, and small gifts.

Appropriate games were played, and prize winners were Mmes. Walter Bernsten, Blanche Schildmeyer, Harold Simon and the bridegroom, John Deere.

Guests attending were: Mmes. Ann Atkinson, Blanche Schildmeyer, aunt; Lois Schildmeyer, sister-in-law; Lila Lang, Boris Jenkins, Ila MacPhail, Walter Bernsten, Harold Simon, Joe Kubishita, mother of the bridegroom; Miss Donna Wilkins, Misses Maxine Schildmeyer and Diane Schildmeyer, sisters of the bride-elect; and Mrs. William Schildmeyer, her mother.

Those sending gifts but unable to attend were: Miss Ethel Scherer; Mmes. Billie Wagner, Florence Hart, Theda Diselhorst, Neal Henry, Marie Jones, Jeanne Farrar, and Misses Nancy Henry and Charlene Farrar.

Honoring both Miss Schildmeyer and Mr. Deere, another shower was given last Saturday evening by Miss Schildmeyer's cousins, June and Bud Nasland, Phyllis and Dave Milovich, and Bev and Bob Hertel, at the home of the Naslands, in West Covina.

The table was decorated by a large heart and two cupid dolls. Winning prizes during the evening were Bob Wagner and Mrs. Blanche Schildmeyer, Jim Deere, Alma and Joe Kubishita, Miss Diane Schildmeyer, Chuck Allen, Miss Maxine Schildmeyer, Ruth and Bill Schildmeyer.

Guests in attendance were LaFaun and John Nuchols, Mrs. Doris Alden, Billie and Bob Wagner, Lois and Chuck Schildmeyer, Arleen and Kenny Speer, Mrs. Blanche Schildmeyer, Jim Deere, Alma and Joe Kubishita, Miss Diane Schildmeyer, Chuck Allen, Miss Maxine Schildmeyer, Ruth and Bill Schildmeyer.
